"Criminal minds: the neurobiological and psychological perspectives"

This lecture will review the latest neuroscience of individuals who commit serious violent crime. We will discuss the latest neuroscience of psychopathic personality, how the brains of those who commit murders are different from other inmates and how neuroscience may help to predict future antisocial behavior.

Giovedì 18 luglio ore 15.00
Aula Vitali – Scuola Medica
Via Roma 55, Pisa