

International Programme in Humanities

IV edition / A.Y. 2018-2019

International Programme in Humanities

The IPH is a one-year programme taught exclusively in English which aims at preparing students by providing a solid multidisciplinary background in the fields of History, Arts, Philosophy and Communication.

It is also the first year of our degrees in History, Cultural Heritage Studies, Communication and Performing Arts.

Our aim is to investigate the major challenges of life in the contemporary world by developing academic and professional expertises, including critical thinking, analytical and organisational skills.
