

“The word Solidarity appears 16 times in the Treaties. Our European Budget is a living proof of financial Solidarity. Euro is an expression of Solidarity. Our development policy is a strong external sign of Solidarity. And when it comes to managing the refugee crisis, we have started to see Solidarity. I am convinced much more Solidarity is needed (...)

Solidarity is the glue that keeps our Union together (...) When the Portuguese hills were burning, Italian planes doused the flames. When floods cut off the power in Romania, Swedish generators turned the lights back on. When thousands of refugees arrived on Greek shores, Slovakian tents provided shelter. ”

Winter School "Solidarity in EU Law"

3 - 6 February 2020
Pisa - Italy

Application deadline: 5 January 2020

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Solidarity in European Union Law continues to be one of the possible solutions to many of the current critical challenges: management of migrations, refugees, natural and man-made disasters and climate change. With this background in mind, this School provides to students all the essential tools to manage Solidarity in every European Union field of application through lectures held by authoritative teachers (especially influential scholars and prominent organizations officers). The School aims to provide a deep and wide knowledge of Solidarity in European Union Law, building the basis for future implementations of the topic, both in EU and in Partner Countries.

TARGET GROUPS

The school is open to a wide range of participant: university professors, post-doc researchers, PhD candidates, students, high-school teachers, practitioners such as lawyers, trade unionists, public officers, policy makers, international organizations officers. The Winter School is also open to students, young people, professionals interested in the matter who have never had the chance to study European Union Law.
