The information below applies to all the selection procedures indicated above

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS (Article 3 of the Call for applications)

Master's Degree (LM) /Second Degree (Specialistica-LS) (or Old system University Degree): ALL

or equivalent academic qualification in accordance with Ministerial Decree of 9 July 2009 to be obtained by 31 October 2026.
In the event that the degree has not yet been awarded by the deadline of the Call for applications, the candidate must attach a list of the examinations taken, including the corresponding marks.

Important: In this regard, during the online application procedure for the selection, the candidate must attach a self-declaration concerning the degree already obtained, or to be obtained, drawn up in accordance with Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, as per Annex 2 to the Call for applications.

SELECTION METHODS AND CRITERIA (Article 4 of the Call for applications)

Curriculum vitae

The CV, duly signed and accompanied by a photocopy of a valid identity document, must be uploaded exclusively during the online application procedure for the selection, and must outline the candidate's educational background, as well as their professional and research experience. Candidates are advised to submit any documentation deemed useful for the purposes of assessing the CV.

Written test

The test is intended to assess the candidate's academic background and may be taken, at the candidate's choice, in either Italian or English.

It will have to verify the candidate's ability to write a well-structured and argued text on a relevant historical theme, possibly dealing with the period considered in the research project.

Interview

The interview shall assess the candidate's knowledge, aptitude for research, willingness to undertake training pathways in Italy and abroad, and interest in further scientific study. It must verify the organicity, feasibility and originality of the research project. The interview will include an assessment of knowledge of the English language.

Videoconferencing

Candidates wishing to take the interview by videoconference must upload the VIDEO Annex to the Call for applications exclusively during the online application procedure for the selection. Requests received after the deadline of the Call for applications (8 June 2026) shall be submitted to the Selection Committee, which will assess whether to accept them in light of the technical time required to organise the interview by videoconference.

Research Project:

to be assessed together with the CV and to be presented at the interview

The research project must be uploaded during the online application procedure for registration.

The research project, assessed together with the CV, is intended to highlight the candidate's ability to design a research proposal and to verify the consistency of its content with the PhD programme themes.

The research project must not exceed 15,000 characters (including spaces) and must include an essential bibliography (not included in the maximum number of characters).

SCHEDULE OF THE TESTS

The tests may take place in the period between 22 June and 6 July 2026.

The schedule of the tests, for each of the selections below, will be published by 25 May 2026 at <https://www.unipi.it/bando-dottorato>, including the indication of the venue where they will be held.

RANKING LIST AND ENROLMENT

Article 5 of the Call for applications sets out:

- the procedures for drawing up the ranking list
- the date of publication of the ranking list
- the procedures and deadlines for enrolment
- the procedures and deadlines for subsequent admissions from the ranking list.

Important: Subsequent admissions from the ranking lists, after 17 September and until 31 December 2026, are permitted only for “open” grants (i.e. those without a specific research topic).

In the other selection procedures, as they involve subject-based grants, any unassigned positions at the end of the third round of admissions from the ranking list will be made available by means of a specific notice, to be issued by Rector’s Decree in November. Such notice will be reserved for eligible candidates suitably placed in the ranking lists of the selection procedures already completed and will be published at <https://www.unipi.it/didattica/corsi/dottorati/>.

With regard to the publication of the notice and the procedures for the reallocation of the grants, no individual email communication will be sent to eligible candidates, as all relevant information will be provided upon publication of the ranking lists.
